2025/02/02

13:00-17:00 pm (JST) : Zoom High-Flex (International Research Center for Japanese Studies, Kyoto, Japan)

A part of the international joint workshop between a team research of the International Institute for Japanese Studies: 'Mouths and Noses: A Cultural History of the Junctures between the Human Body and the Outside World in Japan' and the bilateral exchange programme between Slovenia and Japan: 'Peasant Economy in Sustainable Development: Historical Myth or Reality?' will be organised as HAELE-14 via Zoom's online high-flex. In particular, we would like to focus our deliberations on the presentations of the three researchers coming from Slovenia:

1. Ivan Smiljanić, Institute of Contemporary History, Ljubljana, Slovenia
The smells of Ljubljana around 1900
2. Nataša Henig Mišičič, Institute of Contemporary History, Ljubljana, Slovenia
Soap production in Slovenian territory during the second half of the 19th and early 20th century
3. Žarko Lazarević, Institute of Contemporary History, Ljubljana, Slovenia
Hygienization in Slovenia until the Second World War

This workshop is supported by Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research B (20H01523 / 23H01661);
JSPS Core-to-Core Programme; JSPS/MESS Bilateral Programme.
